From Director Clint Eastwood, “Invictus” tells the inspiring true story of how Nelson Mandela (Played by Morgan Freeman) joined forces with the captain of South Africa’s rugby team, Francois Pienaar (Played by Matt Damon), to help unite their country. Newly elected President Mandela knows his nation remains racially and economically divided in the wake of apartheid. Believing he can bring his people together through the universal language of sport, Mandela rallies South Africa’s underdog rugby team movie is rated PG-13 with some brief strong language. This movie runs for approximately 2 hours and 14 minutes.
