You'll enjoy this wonderful comedy about a frustrated temporary secretary (Amy Adams) when she embarks on a year-long culinary quest to cook all 524 recipes in Julia Child's mastering the Art of French Cooking. She chronicles her trials and tribulations in a blog that catches on with the food crowd. The film also covers the years Julia Child (Meryl Streep) and her husband Paul (Stanley Tucci) spent in Paris during the 1940's and 1950's, when he was a foreign diplomat who was eventually investigated by Sen. Joseph McCarthy for alleged communist ties.
